Billy Carney, son of O. E. Carney, is in training with the Air Force at Buckley Field, Colorado. He has been in the Army since June.

Nevil Marshall is managing a dry cleaning plant at Poca-hontas, Va. He still resides in Bluefield, W. Va.

Harman D. Cole tried to enlist in the Army and was placed in Class 4-F. He is doing his fighting on the home front, buying bonds. He is assistant scoutmaster and is helping the Boy Scouts collecting scrap metal. For obvious reason the rest is a military secret.
