

Rochester School Helps Schools in China

The Rochester School for the Deaf continues to assist schools in China as it has done for years through cash contributions by students and faculty. According to a recent story in The Advocate sixteen schools for the deaf in China remain open today as the result of assistance received from America. Without this aid they would have been closed due to the difficulties brought on by the war.—The Deaf Oklahoman.