

Son of Deaf Couple With Paratroopers

A recent visitor to Washington, D. C., was Second Lieutenant Frank Johnstone, Jr. of the Airborne Infantry. Lt. Johnstone was stationed at Ft. Meade. He expects that he will be sent overseas some time in the near future. Enlisting as a private, Lt. Johnstone worked up from the ranks in one of the most demanding branches of the services; his officer training was taken at Ft. Benning, Ga. Lt. Johnstone's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnstone, Sr., of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mr. Johnstone is President of the Salt Lake Division of the N. F. S. D.
